You are requested to participate and contribute in the above seminar. The seminar is being organized to provide a platform for the library and information professionals and also the teaching faculties of various disciplines.

Library is the soul of an Educational institution. Information is an essential ingredient in social and economic development as well as in research. Information technology has influenced all aspects of the life. Libraries and Information centers are playing an important role in accessing the information.

We expect that new advancements in library and information science will enrich knowledge in all disciplines. Your participation will be of great help in achieving the objective of the seminar.

ABOUT AURANGABAD CITY

Aurangabad is historic place of tourist attraction and an industrial city, moving towards smart city. It is the divisional headquarter of Marathwada revenue division. The city is famous for Ellora caves and exquisitely painted Ajanta Caves dating back second century B.C. it houses the remain of the grandeur of the last phases of Mughal Empire. Ajanta, Ellora, Ghrushneshwar, Khultabad, Daulatabad, Pitalkhora, Mhaismal and Paithan are the places of tourist attraction situated on the outskirts of the city. While Bibika Maqabara, Aurangabad Caves and Panchakki are located in the periphery of the city. Shirdi and Shanishingnapur are about three hours journey by road from Aurangabad. The city is well connected by road, rail and air ways. The climate at Aurangabad is pleasant. The temperature of the city in the month of January ranges between 25°C. to 30°C.
