

Umesh Bagade

Professor

Department of History and AIC

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada

University Aurangabad

Umesh Bagade received his BA, MA, MPhil and PhD degrees from Pune University

He has research and teaching interests in the history of anti-caste movements, intellectual and social history of modern Maharashtra, historiography, studies of caste economy and history of caste gender consciousness.

His book, Reform Movement of Maharashtra and Caste-Class Hegemony (Marathi) (Sugawa prakashan, 2006) theorizes the dynamics of religious ideologies entrapped in caste-class contradictions of 19th century Maharashtra. It offers critical analysis of abortive modernity predicated under caste-class and gender politics and unfolds the trajectory hegemonic and counter- hegemonic dimensions of social reform movement. His biography of Mahatma Jotirao Phule situates Phule as the major thinker who tried to build alternative culture in 19th century Maharashtra. His book 'Dr. Ambedkar's Historical Method, (Critical Quest, 2015) unfolds Ambedkar's confrontation of Positivist Method of history. His book 'Social Consciousness in Peasant Insurgency of Colonial Maharashtra' (Hariti 1917) reveals caste and class contours embedded in peasant insurgent consciousness under colonial Maharashtra. He wrote more than 30 research articles in national international and regional journals.

Professor Umesh Bagade is currently working on trilogy of books tracing three different trajectories of caste consciousness in Modern Maharashtra unfolding changing textures of Dalit, peasant and Brahmin caste consciousness.

He has served as Director of Rajashri Shahu Maharaj Research Center which organized several workshops, seminars and conferences on different social, academic pedagogic and research themes. He also worked as the member of editorial board of the journals like Shrivani, Samaj Prabodhan Patrika; he worked in various capacities on the board of studies in different universities and also worked as member of advisory Board of center of freedom struggle IGNOU New Delhi. He also availed three terms of associateship at IAS Shimla contributing important research articles. He was president of Nana Patil Academy working as collaborative intellectual intervention in social transformation.
